

There was a time when our family couldn't enjoy eating supper or an evening together without getting on average 2 telemarketing calls an evening.

Since Wisconsin has enforced the no-call list it has been great. We come home after a long day and can enjoy supper and our evenings. Please do not let them take that away from us.